

Andrea Nann | Dreamwalker Dance Company

Available Dates: Wednesday June 2, 2010 from 9am-1:30pm
Other dates could also be arranged.

Workshop Descriptions:

Creative Movement workshop

This workshop guides students from Grades 3-12 through exercises and experiences where they learn and practice basic elements of dance and develop creative expression, observation and communication skills.

We engage learners in carefully structured and responsibly monitored movement exercises and improvisations that inspire imagination, exploration, discovery, composition, storytelling, dramatic intention, and execution.

About the Andrea Nann

Andrea Nann is a Toronto based contemporary dance choreographer, performer, teacher and artistic director of Andrea Nann Dreamwalker Dance Company. As a choreographer, director and producer, Nann brings together artists from many different disciplines. A graduate of York University's Department of Fine Arts in 1988, Nann was a full-time member of the Danny Grossman Dance Company (DGDC) for fifteen years from 1988 – 2003 where she created, performed and taught major roles from the works of Mr. Grossman and guest choreographers. As an independent dancer she has created and performed over forty original roles for a long list of prominent Canadian choreographers.